tation in the town of Luis Guillon in the Prov. of Bs.As.

The clash took place on Pellegrini St. when security forces engaged in a control operation were fired on by the terrorists when they were stopped at a checkpoint. Small arms and automatic weapons, bombs and Montonero literature were reportedly found in the vehicle.

In another incident on the same day, a police car was attacked from a passing vehicle near Pereyra Iraola Park in Bs. As. Prov. There were no injuries and the assailants escaped.

3. RSO COMMENT: During interview with security sources RSO was informed that ERP combative force now is slightly over 100 on a country-wide basis and that a substantial number of the political leaders have departed the country.

Sources also stated there is a serious split in the Montonero movement, ^A minority faction ^{favors} moving out of ^{role} a combative/into a more political role and breaking with the Marxist elements within the party. The other faction feels that military action must be continued in order to keep the party as a political force.

4. Sources stated that a review of the Montonero accomplishments over the past few months provides testimony to their weakness. On May 7, 1977 they made an unsuccessful assassination attempt on Foreign Minister Guzzetti.

[This was the high point of their recent operations.]

On Apr. 7 they fired indiscriminately at a police patrol.
On Apr. 26 they killed a member of the provincial police and they have waged four attacks on railroad police, two of which have been successful. Compared to the losses and setbacks they have suffered, ~~xxx~~ these are marginal accomplishments generally directed at very soft targets.
5. Sources stated that there was no question but that the govt is ~~/theyxxxxxx~~ winning the military combat with the terrorist ~~xxxxxxxx~~ but the terrorists still have strong based political/media support abroad and the battle was not over yet.
